

FIRST MEETING FOR AICC CLIENT ADVISORY BOARD

On Monday, September 14, 2015, the newly elected members of the Client Advisory Board (CAB) at the American Indian Counseling Center (AICC) met for the first time. The CAB meets bi-weekly on Mondays at the AICC, but this time was the first actual meeting of a board made entirely up of clients.

The six board members were recently voted into office in late August. The main goals of the CAB are to promote client involvement, be a voice for clients, and influence organizations to improve services for clients and families.

Through the CAB, clients have actively collaborated to fundraise and plan activities for everyone at AICC. AICC staff is proud that the group held a few fundraisers recently to pay for their weekly cultural group and outings, and even donated a portion to NAMI.
